

The EVE Project

Referral Guidelines

About

Representing Equality, Value and Empowerment, The EVE Project is a 12-month trauma healing and pathways to purpose group program for women who have experienced abuse (group size: max. of ten). Delivered by Hopefield Services, the program offers women a holistic and client centered experience in a safe and nurturing environment designed to support them as they reclaim their lives, continue to heal and build a sustainable future for themselves and their children.

Program Criteria, who should apply:

- Women aged 18+ with a trauma/abuse history
- Applicants must have stable housing
- Be working with a counsellor/psychologist
- Women at least 12 months post abuse
- Applicants willing to explore healing and future purpose

Preferred but not essential, applicants should:

- Have Case Management Support in place
- Have childcare in place for any child/ren in their care

The program* includes:

- Work readiness training
- Life skills development
- Well-being sessions
- Complementary Therapies
- Supported activities relevant to individually identified goals
- Pathways to future employment/training/study/volunteer One-to-one coaching based on life purpose goals (including employment)

*Some elements of the program are delivered by partner organisations/therapists

How to refer:

Self-referral

1. For initial enquiries about program availability and suitability, please contact Hopefield office at admin@hopefield.org.au or on 02 9545 0299
2. Complete referral form and forward to admin@hopefield.org.au
3. Dependent upon program availability and suitability an appointment will be scheduled for a program assessment

Professional referral

GP's, Allied Health Professionals, Job Service Providers, community-based agencies and educational institutions can all refer to The EVE Project using the Referral Form attached or online.

Please note: This application/referral does not guarantee entry into the program. Applicants will be invited to attend an assessment interview to determine if the program is the correct fit for them. The results of the assessment will be shared with each applicant and referrer within 5 working days of the interview.